

The FCC should not mandate that all HDTV receivers implement copy protection. Let the free market prevail, regardless of CBS's implied threats.